On their own or as part of Baytones, they draw smiles of recognition from audiences of several generations. Enjoy their renditions of "Hello My Baby," "Lida Rose," "Sweet Adeline," "Basin Street Blues" and more.

Todd Crowley brings his Musical "Petting Zoo" treat for all ages to Folk and music festivals across the country. Curious and adventurous??

At 2:00, Todd performs original compositions and Folk music on his many autoharps. Singing folk music from boyhood, taught by legendary Autoharp performer Bryan Bowers, he teaches and performs across the country. From Weems, Todd travels to Albuquerque, NM. Learn about his festival and performance schedule at www.diatoddnics.com.

Steve Keith performs original songs and traditional melodies— Country, Blue Grass, Jazz, Folk and Blues—on banjo, fiddle, guitar and harmonica.

He first played banjo with Babe Stovall ("Mr. Bojangles") in New Orleans at age 19, and now performs across the US and in Europe. Steve has appeared in "Mason Williams Concert for Bluegrass Band and Symphony", and with Willie Nelson, Guy Clark, David Bromberg and Jerry Jeff Walker. When in the Northern Neck he writes and performs "Bay Culture" songs. Steve won the "2009 Big Easy Award" in New Orleans playing electric fiddle and banjo as part of "Gal Holiday and the Honky Tonk Revue." Bill Gurley performs his original compositions— Folk, Rock, Swing, Country, Blue Grass, Old Time and Gospel—on fiddle, banjo and guitar..
